In cooperation with the Indiana Workforce Development and the Indiana Office of Faith Based and Community Initiatives, several additional locations for Hoosiers to file their unemployment claims and weekly reports are available. In Marshall County the location is the Community Center of St. Mary the Protectress Orthodox Church, 1000 South Michigan Street, Plymouth, Indiana.

In addition to computers to file your initial unemployment claim and your weekly reports, the center has volunteers to help with job searches, resumes, interviewing skills, networking, employment support groups, and lots of other employment related things.
